RICHARD KELLER

Richard, It was really fun playing basketball with you this year. I still think you should pass to me more but that's ~~ok~~ ok. We had some good times together this year. Take it easy and play some basketball this summer and keep in shape. Have a fun summer.

Your Buddy

Robert Calabruz

Richard

It was great having you for a friend this year. Next year will be better because you won't be a freshman any more. I know I will see you in basketball every day, well I don't want to say too much so I'll see you after school your friend!

Richard,

It was fun knowing you this year. I hope you have a great year next year in basketball. Have a Great Summer.

Mark Pompos

Rich,

It's been great having you as a good friend this year, even if you are a freshman. Thanks for the help in trying for Kristina even if I didn't get her. (Thanks) Maybe I'll teach you how to play ~~baseball~~ baseball this summer and you can teach me how to play basketball. O.K. maybe some time you can beat me in ping pong. Please get taller cause if you don't Mike is going to pass you up. Keep trying to get Kristina for me I know she hates me but I think she's a hot. So ~~see~~ I'll see you in the summer if I don't tell Kristina. Hi and I ~~still~~ still like her. ~~Mike~~

Lighting Of Torch Creates Olympic

"Go for the Gold" was the homecoming theme for 1980-81, as Los Amigos gave a salute to the athletes who could not participate in the 1980 summer Moscow Olympics, due to all the political problems of the world. (Afghanistan)

Leadership worked very hard behind the scenes working on the float, decorations and other details that helped to make it an eventful evening. The band and drill team also spent many hours of practice to participate in the activities.

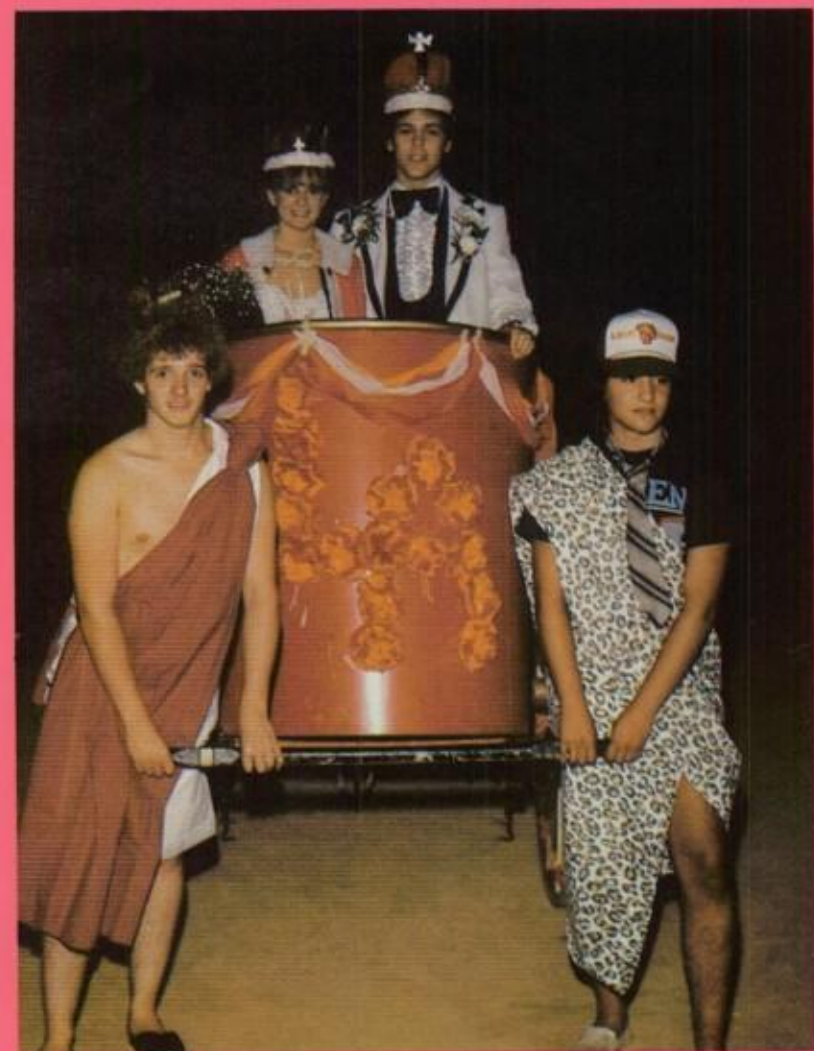

The night's activities started with many colorful balloons being sent into the air. Ron Ross, Mark Cunnert and Rosalva Bonilla started the festivities by running around the track with two torches. The returning King Dan Grable and Queen Sally Morehouse appeared before the crowd in a chariot being pulled by two Roman men. The prince and princesses were freshmen Richard Keller and Cindy O'Connell; sophomores John Shook and Ceci Gonzales; juniors Marcus Perez and Karen Keyser.

The candidates for King were seniors Steve Day, Todd Eskelsen, Scott Madden and Joe Reed. The Queen candidates were seniors Tanza Ashcroft, Becky Gonzales, Lori Schoaf and Tracy Turner.

All of the candidates arrived on a float that was decorated with the different countries' flags that boycotted the summer Olympics. It also had a big torch made out of tissue paper to symbolize the Olympics.

The returning King and Queen crowned Steve Day and Becky Gonzales as this year's King and Queen; they were crowned under the Parthanon.

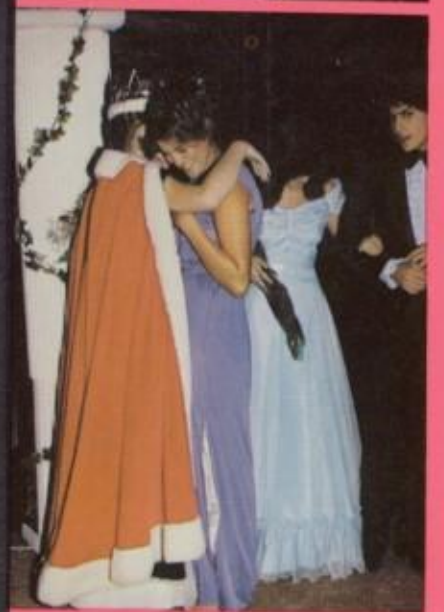

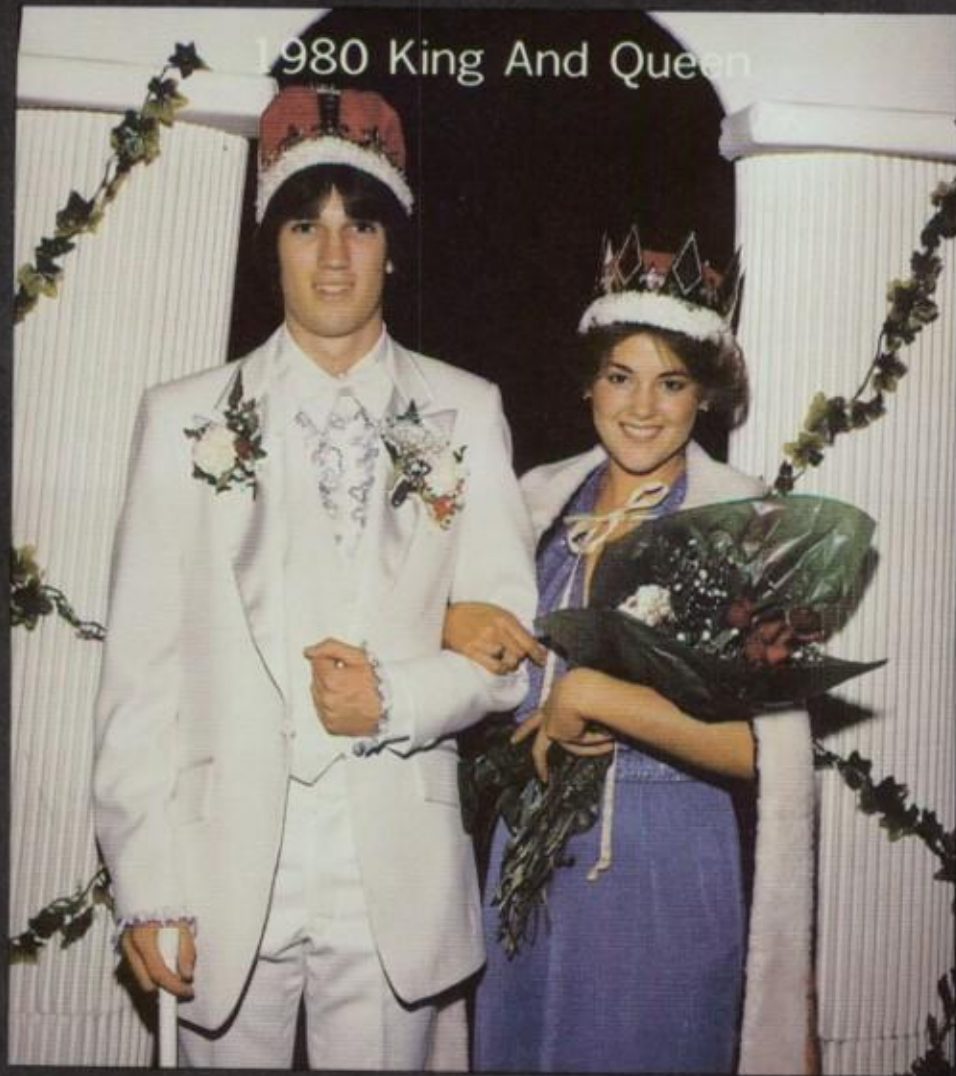

After the game against La Quinta, there was a dance that was open to all alumni and music was offered by the band called 'Backstreet'.

Returning King and Queen Sally Morehouse and Dan Grable.

Third row: Natalie Jaremenko, Rhonda Reed, Heather Macky, Bridget Ponce, Paula King, Beth Robbins, Dawn Trevor, and Ruby Escobar.

This year's ASB sponsored many events. The car rallies were a big hit. This was a test of driving and navigating skills. ASB sponsored two big dances this year; they were the Sadie Hawkins and the Mardi Gras dances. They held a variety show that was very successful along with an Almost Anything Goes competition. The picking of the King and Queen of Courts and the dance were both put on by the ASB. They held quite a few fund raisers that made them a lot of money so they ended the year very successfully.

L.A.'s New Club Hangs Ten

This year's new Surfing Club had a good start with a strong membership of 14 surfers. This club was open to any student who could surf. The members met every Wednesday with their advisor, Mr. Martin Shackleton, in his classroom at lunch. The club's officers were president Ollie Heim, vice president Dave DeHority, and treasurer Jim Clodfelter.

Our Surfing Club competed in meets against other schools throughout the year. Plans included car washes to aid with finances for team shirts and a surfing trip to Baja. As a club or individually, the members surfed often in warm and cold weather at our local beaches.

"Wave Tools" is just one of many favored surfboards.

In LA's first surfing contest, senior Robbie Lorton placed second, freshman Andre Rusconi first, and junior Ollie Heim third.

Tracy Minick jiving through the water.

This was the second year for the sailing club, and they're still afloat. The club consisted of 17 valiant students who met twice a month at the Sea Scout Explorer Base in Newport Beach. On those Saturday meetings they learned the four basic sets of instructions: learning how to sail a boat, safety rules, parts of a boat, and about different types of boats. When they passed the test it enabled them to face the treachery of the wide open sea. The advisors were Myra George and Steve Trotter.

Ski Club Glides Into Action

David Erickson: Ski 2 hot.

At its prime, the ski club consisted of 21 full-time members. The ski club sponsors, Mrs. Myra Diester and the Scout Explorers, made the jaunts possible by helping to plan the trips and accompany the group too. Joining the Scouts for insurance benefits was the only requirement of the club.

Before Christmas the trips were minimal due to the lack of snow, but included two trips to Wyoming and Utah during Christmas vacation. After the first of the year, more snow fell, and a trip to Purgatory, Wyoming, was taken during Easter vacation.

For all members who couldn't ski very well or needed brushing up on techniques, they had the option to trade in lift tickets for lessons.

The Vietnamese club has done a lot this year. Earlier they had a picnic and a big Christmas party. The thing the club really looked forward to was the Chinese New Year which was February 20. This was the biggest event of the year. The club ended the year with a banquet.

Reflector Staff Completes

1. Rory Ratliff, Linda Young, Trisha Jenkins seek advise from Mrs. Carol Strauss.
2. Seniors Kim Bradstock, Dave Kiernan, and Angie Harry work on pages for the senior section.
3. Mark Schiefelbein, Don Assenberg, and Gail Mackiewicz are caught by surprise.

The Reflector was created by 23 imaginative and hard working people this year. The staff worked hard to meet deadlines and put together the photographs and words which were most memorable. In the event of each deadline, they planned layouts, arranged for pictures to be taken, chose pictures to be used, and wrote copy and headlines. It all seemed simple enough in the beginning, yet everyone felt the pressure of getting things done correctly and on time.

The leaders of this "pack" were class advisor Mrs. Carol Strauss, editor Kimber Trammell, and assistant editor Angela Harry. Mrs. Strauss had the toughest job of keeping the staff going. When things got a bit rowdy or out of line, she made sure the staff knew it. She also showed recognition to everyone on a job well done. Kimber, a senior, had been a member of the Reflector staff four years: this year was her second year as editor. She worked hard to organize the book's format and arrange the pages to be assigned. Along with Angela and other second year members, she made decisions about the book's theme.

Some members of the staff attended the publications Oktoberfest '80 on October 17 and 18 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Los Angeles. The Reflector members, and several other hundred members of other numerous high schools, gained new ideas for a better yearbook by attending various seminars.

Photographers were important members of the staff, also. They worked hard using their skills and tending to the staff's needs. There was hardly ever a dull moment between those who needed the pictures and those who took them. Arguments occurred and no one would think that even through these arguments, gratifying accomplishments were made.

The Press Going

The Los Amigos Paw Prints Staff was short on people but long on determination. The shortness of staff along with lack of funds made the task of putting out a paper a difficult one. Determination was evident in many aspects of the paper. When crises arose, the paper was published through the hard work of the staff. When it came time for the Christmas edition, they were told there wasn't enough money for the traditional eight page paper, but the staff pulled the eight page edition out in spite of the handicap.

To put the paper out, the staff must go through many things. The editors have a board meeting to decide which stories to use. The stories are then assigned, and whoever isn't there that day, gets to choose from the remaining stories. Members of the staff run all over campus doing beats and finding information. The stories are written, typed, and copyread as fast as possible because of the timeliness involved. The stories are then proofread, headlines are written, and everything is sent back to the printer. The job of the editors is to then layout the pages and pray nothing's crooked. The pages are then gathered up and the editors breathe a sign of relief and rush back to school to soothe irate teachers.

The Creative Writing Club did not have many members but it was rapidly growing. They met every Tuesday in advisor Mrs. Dee Wilhite's room. The club was open to various types of writing techniques such as satire, drama and irony.

Each member worked on his own personal writing interests. Some of the member contributed special poetry to the Christmas eiditon of the Paw Prints. In the month of March the club held a contest and anyone could enter. They had a broad range of categories to enter, anywhere from comedy to poetry.

LA Stage And Concert Band

The Concert Band is the band that plays mostly classical music, but they also played some popular pieces. The band played a Christmas concert and played at the Los Amigos graduation. The concert band only played in one festival, Garden Grove Festival. The concert band had a class in which they learned very much from the new band teacher Mr. Wilson.

Under New Direction

The LA stage band is a class in which students are taught to play rock music, jazz, and blues. Apart from playing the traditional "Mothers Cookies" at basketball games the band played a few concerts, but what the band did the most was play at festivals. Los Amigos sponsored its own Jazz Festival this year; they also attended the Orange Coast College Jazz Festival and the Burbank Jazz Festival. The band had a good year under the new direction of Mr. Bob Wilson.

Full Of Expansion

Expansion was the theme of the Las Damas Drill Team this year. With a record-setting membership of 36 and participation in four parades rather than the usual two, the group has become much more active. Other competitions included two drill team competitions, a district competition, in which they did very well, and Drill Team U.S.A. They also performed at an old folks home and joined the band for a performance at Dodger Stadium in March.

The expansion was led by returning advisor Jeanette Morin, captain Margaret Bernard, and co-captains Renee Kessler and Lisa Schales. After a very busy summer full of practice, the inexperienced girls jelled into an outstanding performing group who traveled from West Covina to Laguna Beach exhibiting their talent.

ACTIVITIES

Seniors Dominate

Every year the classes battle it off during spirit week. Each class tries to prove that they are the most spirited class. The scrubs started it off with hospital day and a stretcher race along with a fliper hurdle race. The sophomores chose to dress as cowboys and have a rootbeer chug a lug and a sweat suit swim race. The juniors had a Hollywood day with a shaving cream hair contest along with a human chariot race. The class of '81 just didn't care about anything. They had a Volkswagen race and the traditional tug a war. Friday was the final event which was class competition and the seniors proved to be the most spirited class.

The assembly's special features included a La Quinta dummy hanged and whipped by L.A. students to the hit song "Whip It" by Devo, skits by our very own male cheerleaders, the toilet paper wrap contest, and the appearance of Lon (Super Lobo) Tuin. Additional presentations were performed by electronics teacher Mr. Pat Francois, the L.A. band, flag, and drill team.

Although the football game ended with a disastrous score of 33-7 against La Quinta, L.A. students showed spirit and pride throughout the game and dance.

Boosters use Little Theatre for monthly meetings.

Los Amigos had three booster clubs for 1980-81. Although the Band and Drill Team Booster Clubs attended all of the performances given by their respective groups, the Athletic Booster Club was more active than the other two.

The Athletic Booster Club had 190 full members, 30 to 40 of whom were active members. Through art auctions, carnivals, 50/50 drawings, pizza nights, membership drives, and most important, selling ads for the football and basketball programs, the club raised enough money to purchase long-lasting equipment for the sports programs: two basketball scoreboards, the Lobo emblem on the gym floor, several pieces of weightlifting equipment, a football blocking sledge, and a batting cage. The club also laid cement for the pole vault runway, and contributed $300 for new softball uniforms.

Although the club was a very serious and important organization they also had fun. They had parties, played volleyball on Thursday nights, organized potluck banquets, had tailgate parties, and drew record crowds at the Wooden Nickel after football games.

At the Booster Club meeting in January 12, 1981, the new officers were elected: President, Bill Shaver; First Vice President, Gary Berthold; Second Vice President, Barry Kidd; Third Vice President, Vi McNeil; Secretary, Lorretta Coffman; Treasurer, Elaine Polichetti.

The chairpersons included: Newsletter, Sandy Tuman; Program, Pauline King; Telephone, Linda Charbonneau; Hospitality, Connie Wells; Jacket, Nancy Bohannan.

Christmas Cheer Explodes

The band, drill team, majorette and flag were all a part of the Christmas assembly held on Dec. 19. Concert choir sang their traditional song "Fruitcake". To everyone's pleasure Mr. Martin Shackleton, Mr. Bob Wilson, Mr. Dave Auxier and Mr. Bob Chambers sang a series of Christmas songs.

The highlight of the program was a visit from Santa played by counselor Al Thompson. Northcutt Elementary students were visitors who chatted with Santa at the assembly.

Senior Harold Wachter was crowned the 1980-81 Co-Ed King. Also, seniors Tina Sweeney and Brad Ludes were chosen as the couple of the evening.

The night was crisp and cool, without a cloud in the sky. Tired dancers could replenish themselves at the buffet table which was laden with a very generous supply of hors d'oeuvres and punch. Roberts Studios of Garden Grove took formal portraits for couples or groups.

Mr. Legs (Whoo-aa!) And Fashion

Can you tell whose legs are whose?

Students' League members carried on their tradition again this year by sponsoring Co-Ed King candidates.

Twelve members chose and sponsored seniors for king who then competed in the Mr. Leg's contest. The candidates wore paper bags over their heads and shorts. Students then voted on the best pair of legs by putting money in a can by the best looking legs. Harold Wachter walked away with honors for the best pair of legs.

The candidates and sponsors also had a fashion show where they modeled tuxedos and formals which was a preview for appropriate dress for the Co-Ed which was held Jan. 17.

Seniors Dominate Drama's First

Nine seniors dedicated to drama were rewarded this year with a new Drama IV class. Drama teacher Mr. George Taylorson, or Mr. 'T', as his students call him, was new to our campus this year. Mr. 'T' had a preview day for the English students to promote drama's first production of "Barefoot in the Park" which was held November 19-21. Two hundred hours of set building, learning lines, learning makeup, and rehearsals were just a part of the hard work and dedication that the drama students put into this production.

Mr. 'T' shows April Craig the proper way to be a mother.

J.T. Wright: National Merit Scholarship Finalist

This school year brought with it a first for Los Amigos. Senior Jason T. Wright was recently selected as a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition. Less than 14,000 finalists are chosen in the United States each year, which is fewer than one half of one percent of this nation's graduating seniors.

To qualify for selection in the National Merit Scholarship Program, the student must initially take the P.S.A.T. (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test), usually given to students in their junior year, and obtain a significantly high score to qualify him as a Semi-Finalist. During his senior year, the student must take the S.A.T. (Scholastic Aptitude Test). If his scores on the S.A.T., coupled with his overall academic performance, are sufficiently high, the competing student is advanced to the finals.

Through the National Merit Scholarship Program approximately $15.5 million were awarded to scholarship winners this year.

California Scholarship Federation (CSF) is an honors club for academic achievers at Los Amigos. CSF had a membership of 54 first semester with a bigger enrollment second semester. CSF night was held at Disneyland on February 20 for the entire state.

At the beginning of the year there were six sealbears (a sealbearer is a person who has qualified for CSF membership for four full semesters at the end of the year). Sealbearers get special recognition at graduation by wearing a gold tassel with their cap and gown, and a gold seal on their diploma.

The choices were seniors Joe Welch, Rosi Parato; juniors Bill Viera, Bridget Ponce; sophomores, Perry Koster, Melinda Melcher; and freshmen Robert Calauig and Kathy Jean. By popular vote the juniors took the night. Last year's reigning king and queen of courts John Hughes and Debbie McCourt were present to pass on the crown to this years' happy couple.

L.A. Girls Dominate F.V. Junior Miss

This year Fountain Valley's Junior Miss Pageant was held at Los Amigos on December 4th. Four out of eight participants were Los Amigos seniors: Lori Parr, Eleanor Dolgin, Susan Nishiyama, and Angie Harry. Angie Harry received second runner-up.

The acts put on by the girls from this school varied; Lori Parr showed off her acting skills in a monologue from "Smashed". Angie Harry pantomimed a doll coming to life in a department store. "Working Day and Night" was the theme for Eleanor Dolgin's jazz routine, and Susan Nishiyama performed a dance to the song "Lovely Hula Hands".

That's Lobo Entertainment

Movies are the Lobo way of life. Among the top rated hits by Lobos were "Airplane", "The Elephant Man", and the sequel to "Star Wars", "The Empire Strikes Back". Other popular movies were "Scanners", "Bronco Billy", "Smokey and the Bandit II", "9 to 5", and "Any Which Way You Can".

"Magnum P.I.", "Dynasty", "Harper Valley P.T.A.", "Fridays", the all new "Buck Rogers", and of course, "Lobo", were favorite L.A. shows. Still big hits were "Mash", "Real People", "Soap", and "General Hospital".

"New Year's Evil", "Flash Gordon".

1980-81 was a year of great events and tragedies. It was the greatest year in our country's history.

Although there were many important events and tragedies in 1980 such as the Italian earthquake and the Presidential elections in November, the most important issue upon America's minds was the hostages which were held for 444 days. On Jan. 20, Inauguration Day, the hostages were released by the Iranians.

Other world events included the Afghanistan invasion by the Russians. When this happened Pres. Carter announced that U.S. athletes would not go to the 1980 Moscow Olympics. Although we did not go to the summer Olympics, the U.S. Hockey Team did win a gold medal with a 4-3 victory over the Russians at the winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York.

In Poland, with the support of the Pope, workers striked to legalize independant unions and the right to strike.

Last May, lootings, fires, 15 deaths, 400 injuries, and $125 million in property damage were the after-effects of the Miami riots.

While across the country, Mt. St. Helens in Washington, erupted with 500 times greater force than the Hiroshima A-bomb.

Also, the Republication candidate Ronald Reagan, was elected over Jimmy Carter by a 489-49 electoral landslide. Chain letters returned as pyramid clubs, the draft was reinstated, and America found out that Kristen Shepard was the culprit who shot J.R. on "Dallas".

In outer space, Voyager I approached within 77,174 miles of Saturn, taking pictures of it, its 15 moons, and its 1000 rings of swirling ice, rock, and dust.

Deaths included actress Mae West, director Alfred Hitchcock, actors Steve McQueen, Peter Sellers, Jimmy Durante, and musician John Lennon, who died of gunshot wounds on Dec. 8.

Streamers And Lights Are

This year's monthly dances were organized by our A.S.B. with plans made by dance commissioner, senior Angela Harry. Our faculty was very cooperative each month is providing dance supervision.

With the help of other A.S.B. members and the student body, the commons was decorated fully each month for the appropriate occasions never before seen.

Plenty of balloons, paper streamers and balls were used often to "fix up" the commons. Each month something new was added. In January, white Christmas lights were purchased and used for the New Year's Dance which made the dance floor softly lit.

The New Decor For Dances

The King and Queen of Courts Dance was beautifully decorated with pink and white paper streamers, pink and red hanging hearts, and a mirrored ball with colored spots lights. The ball and lights were purchased at this time for this dance and future uses. A laser light show was hired for the special attraction at this dance, also. This year's dances were presented more as festive occasions unlike the years before.

Lobos Learn And Earn Via Work Experience

This year over 245 students enrolled in the work experience program, a workstudy program where the students had jobs off campus, got paid for their work and also earned school credits. The occupations ranged from meat cutters to mechanics, fast foods to bus boys. Students had a chance to gain practical on the job experience, earn money and remain in school at the same time. Students can earn up to five credits a semester but are not paid for their services. Jobs range from dental assistants and medical training to brick laying and mechanics.

Football Pulls Throug

Los Amigos varsity football ended their season with a record of 3-3 and went to CIF playoffs for the first time in the history of L.A. Along the way there were many players who were injured and could not return for the remainder of the season: Mike Gomez, Randy Sousa, Dave Kiernan, and Scott Fowler. Although some of the players were lost to injury, the team had a "great attitude and never quit," stated by Coach Selph and Coach Auxier. They made the necessary adjustments and continued to play with confidence and the belief that they could still win.

The highlight of the year for the team was their first CIF competition in the history of L.A. They went as a third place team and were seeded against the highly talked about Sunny Hills. For the first two quarters they were ahead, tying at half time, but Sunny Hills pulled ahead to win 33-14.

Best offense award went to Brian Souice, Best defense went to Dana Diluccia. First team all league were linemen Jim Terreri and receiver Kirk Danhour. Second team all league went to tight end offense Mike Hoefnagels, linebacker Dana Diluccia and tail back Brian Souice. Most improved was Dean Graves and most inspirational went to Bob Huff. The team captains were Jim Terreri and Mike Hoefnagels.

Although this year's soccer team didn't do as well as anticipated, coach Vivanco had positive and rewarding experiences in developing a strong team in the coming years.

Frank McGinley, (last years all league halfback) Peter Heim and Tony Alba did a great job in team leadership, according to coach Vivanco. Also contributing to the team's tremendous effort were Ricky Carmona, Sergio Ramirez and Ollie Heim. Bill Greene did an outstanding job controlling the midfield. "He is the type of player coaches enjoy working with," commented coach Vivanco.

Lobos Rank 3rd In League

The nine man varsity basketball team came up a little short as they finished their season with a 13-12 record. A major drawback this year was the lack of height. The tallest Lobo was only 6'2" tall, which caused difficulties with the taller members of opposing teams.

Beginning pre-season play by winning the consolation championship at Laguna Beach, the Lobos played a hard fought season as they completed league play with a 7-5 record. They won their last four games to pull out a third place title in the Garden Grove League and go on to C.I.F. play.

The team was led by Tyrone Myles who averaged 18 points and nine rebounds a game. Myles was also named, by league coaches, to the first team all league, Joe Reed to second team and Scott Madden, honorable mention.

Lobo play ended in the first round of C.I.F. against Corona del Mar.

The year of 1980, the girls' varsity tennis team consisted of nine players. There were four seniors, one junior and four sophomores. This was the first year with no returning varsity players.

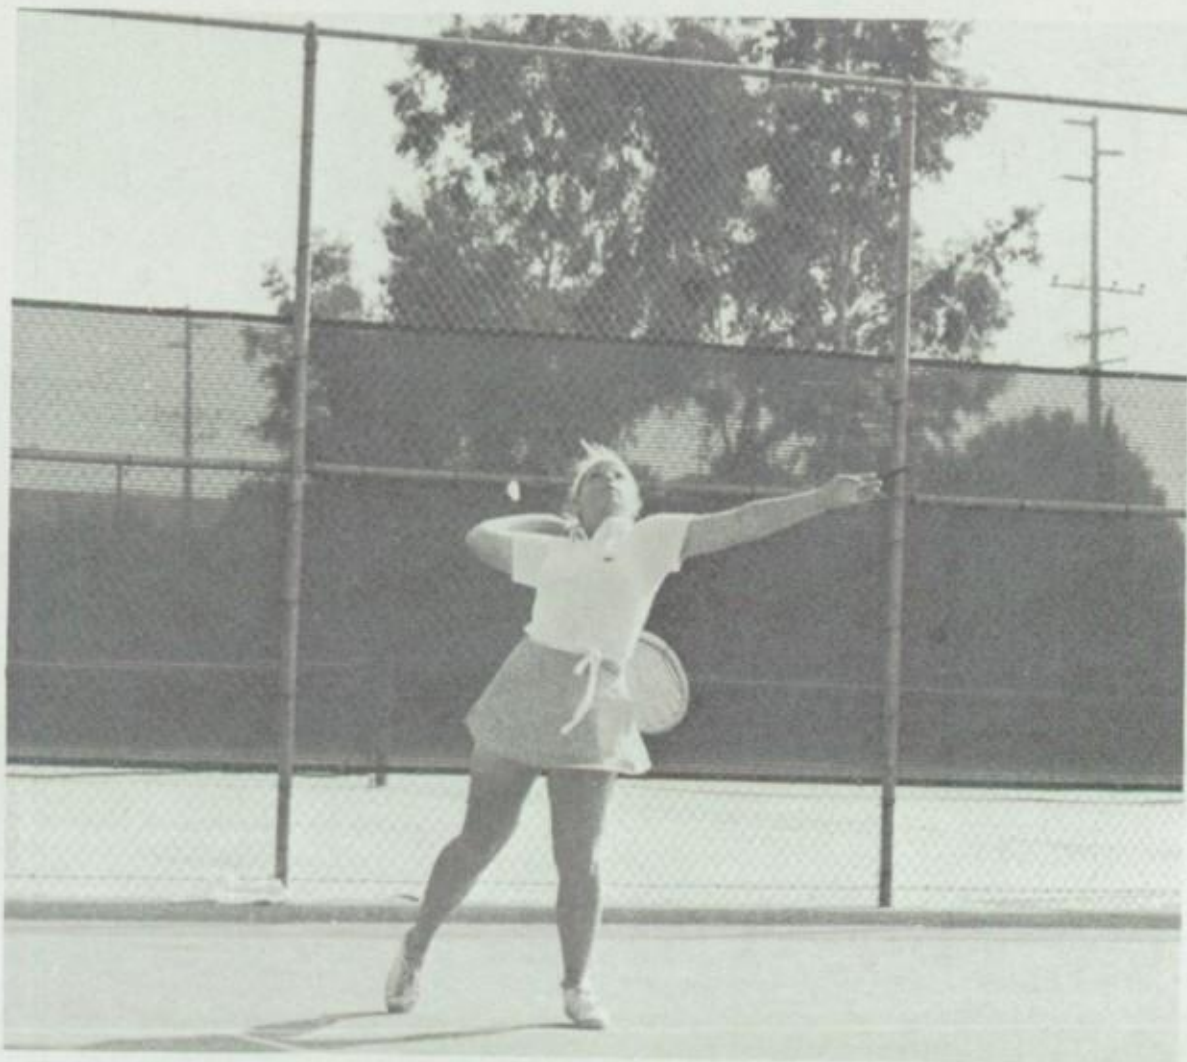

This year the team voted Lynette Stotts MVP. Sandy Springer was voted Most Improved, Bobby Kinney, Most Inspirational, Chris Toron, Most Wins, and Cecelia Altamirano received the Captain's Award.

The team took 3rd place in league, losing only to La Quinta and Bolsa. Chris Toron and Lynette Stotts were the No. 1 doubles team in league and represented the district in CIF. This was the first time Los Amigos had an individual championship doubles team. They advanced to the quarter-finals in the sectionals before being eliminated.

Terrie Goldade demonstrates a classic back dive.

For the first time in many years, L.A. swimmers had the same coach two years in a row. John Bowman, who is here for his second year, coached only the varsity girls, and boys' team. Steve Trotter and Mike Schiesel had their hands full with the largest frosh team in L.A. history.

The varsity teams swam an average of 10,000-12,000 yds. per day (between 6 and 7 miles) at the height of the season. Workouts were held from 6 to 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. daily. Their meet schedule included several top 3A and 4A teams which were a challenge for our swimmers.

Los Amigos introduced a new kind of relay meet to C.I.F. Southern Section. It was an invitational co-ed relay meet, the first of its kind in all of Southern California. Ninety teams were invited and the response was tremendous. The meet was an overall success, and will be a new tradition for Lobo swimmers to look forward to each year.

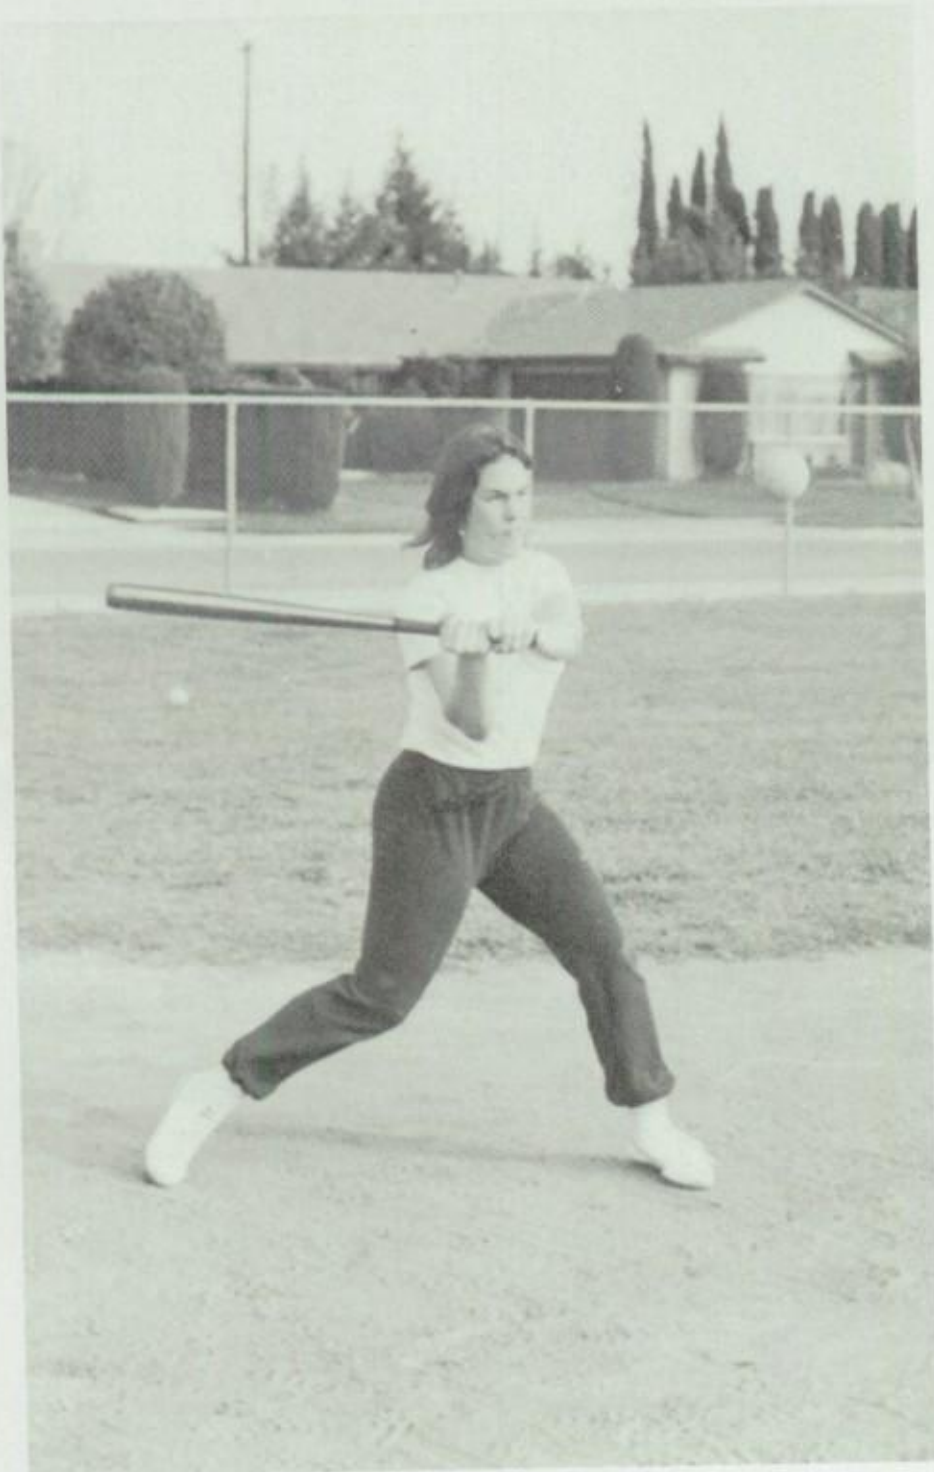

As part of our expanding aquatics program a diving team played a major role in its success. This is the first time in four years that a diving team has been established at L.A. With their untapped potential and youth, the divers look forward to future league diving championships and C.I.F. diving team championships.

Girls' Cross Country Strides For 3rd Place

Rosalva Bonilla, senior, dominated the girls' cross country team. In addition to her League Champion title, her victories included the Corona del Mar Invitational and Costa Mesa Invitational. She finished second in CIF finals. She was voted G. G. League MVP, and All Orange County.

Rosalva was the first recipient of the Athletic Booster Club's Athlete of the Month award. Bonilla was also voted All League for the third year, along with Kathy Kiernan, her second year.

The team had six team members returning this year. These six girls put in 2946 miles during the summer. The three freshmen helped the team a great deal and were the main reason the team did so well.

Awards were given at the cross country banquet to the following people: MVP, Rosalva Bonilla; most spirited, Kathy Kiernan; most improved, Tamera Tillotson and Monique Teselle. The coach's award went to Brenda Bohannan, and the team captain was Dana Chilcote.

You have just finished the book that 23 half-crazy Reflector staff members put together in just seven short months. These people must be commemorated for the hard work and valuable time they put in bringing to you the memories of the year 1980-1981!

Special thanks also go to Mr. Doug (Hoot) Gibson, Josten's representative, who made us some real deals, Roberts Studios, for producing our color, and extra thanks to our fearless advisor, Mrs. Carol Strauss, who kept us all on track and organized especially at deadlines, and last, but certainly not least, to my family and close friends, who supported me through the rough spots during the past two years!

Good luck class of 1981, always remember running with the pack as you leave Los Amigos and learn to run on your own!

Sincerely,
Kimber Trammell

Richard,

I am really glad that I got to know you this year! You are very sweet, cute, understanding, kind, gentle ect... You are a great friend. You helped me this year alot when I was down and I really appreciate it. I remember when you used to go to the tennis courts and watch me try to play tennis. Oh. Well. Please call me this summer! We can go somewhere together like you said. Take care!

Love ya,

Richard,

Hi baby. I'm sorry about everything that's happened ok? I wrote you another note but these stupid guys in 5th per. grabbed it and were going to read it so I ripped it up. Are you going to be home this summer? If you are were going somewhere together, I don't care what you say.

Love you forever,

Lisa ♡

~~Richard,~~ Richard,
